

TAX SCHEDULE COMPARISON*:

State Unemployment Taxes

Rate for New Businesses

Max Rate for Employers

As of January 1, 2021, employer rates for State Unemployment Tax (SUTA) have automatically increased by law from Schedule C to Schedule H, the highest tax rate. Unless legislative action is taken to lower the rate schedule our business community will face even more financial hardships. Stay informed at www.proservice.com/suta

* This data is based on a 2020 taxable wage base of $48,000.

 If the schedule moves towards H, employer rates increase. If the schedule moves towards A, employer rates decrease.
